

B: (Repealed)

Part B was repealed by the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Act, 1956. This part originally dealt with the emoluments of the erstwhile Privy Purse Holders, i.e., the rulers of the princely states that were integrated into the Indian Union. The amendment abolished the privy purses, thus rendering Part B redundant.

Revision #5

Created 10 July 2024 06:42:25 by Denna Susan Shaji

Updated 12 July 2024 05:34:37 by Pooja