Article 50
Separation of judiciary from executive

The State shall take steps to separate the judiciary from the executive in the public services of the State.